

Best Delegate Grading Criteria:

1-2	3-4	5-6	7-8
The delegate has not made any well justified points.	The delegate provided sufficient justification for their points.	The delegate effective arguments that are well structured with clear points.	The delegate has arguments that reflect a nuanced understanding of the topic.
The delegate has not submitted any amendments.	The delegate has submitted a few amendments but not supported by reasonable justification.	The delegate has submitted meaningful amendments with occasionally helpful justifications.	The delegate has submitted meaningful amendments with suitable justifications .
The delegate has not made any contribution to the resolution.	The delegate has somewhat contributed to the resolution.	The delegate has contributed significant portions of time to their resolution group.	The delegate has substantially contributed to their resolution group in time and content.
The delegate does not demonstrate an understanding of any of the topics in the committee.	The delegate demonstrates a limited understanding of the topics in the committee	The delegate demonstrates an adequate level of understanding for most of the topics in the committee.	The delegate has demonstrated a high level of understanding of the topics in the committee.
The delegate asked closed-ended POIs with answers mainly being “Yes or No.”	The delegate has mostly asked POIs that require short thinking, often incoherent, reflecting shallow level of understanding .	The delegate made coherent POIs reflecting an adequate level understanding that are moderately difficult to answer.	The delegate has constantly made many POIs that are coherent, difficult to answer, and demonstrated extensive level of understanding .
The delegate is unable to defend their arguments, mostly answering POIs incoherently and in “Note form”.	The delegate occasionally defended their arguments, answered POIs by providing well thought out answers.	The delegate adequately defended their arguments, answered POIs by providing coherent and well thought out answers.	The delegate thoroughly and effectively defended their arguments; answered POIs by providing coherent and well throughout answer with examples. When necessary, the delegate effectively dodge questions to their benefit.

\

1-2	3-4	5-6	7-8
The delegate does not use body language to support the speech.	The delegate had minimal use of body language and hand gestures.	The delegate has adequate use of body language and hand gestures but may be to the detriment of their speech.	The delegate uses hand gestures and body language effectively to support their speech.
The delegate does not speak with an appropriate tone or volume.	The delegate speaks at an adequate volume and tone.	The delegate speaks with a consistent effective volume and tone.	The delegate speaks with a volume and adjusts tone according to the content of the speech.